

Terms of Appointment, subject to Companies Act, 2013 and Articles of Association of the Company

Appointment

Your appointment will be for a term of five consecutive years effective 15th November, 2018. As an Independent Director, you shall not be liable to retire by rotation.

During your tenure as an Independent Director, you may be requested to serve on one or more of the committees of the Board.

Role & Duties

The Company attaches the highest importance to your all-round perspective while on the Board. As an Independent Director of the Company, we hope to derive the benefit of your vast experience on business matters and in advising the Company as mentioned in Section 166 of the Companies Act, 2013 ("Act").

Fees / Commission

The Board may from time to time fix the remuneration to be paid by way of sitting fees for attending meetings of the Board or Committee thereof.

Reimbursement of Expenses

The Company will reimburse you for all reasonable out of pocket expenses incurred while carrying out your duties including expenses incurred on obtaining advice from independent advisors.

Other Directorships and Business Interests

The Board of Directors has an obligation to act in the best interest of the Company. While the Company acknowledges that you may have business interests other than those of the Company, you are requested to inform the Company Secretary of any apparent situations that present a potential or actual conflict of interest. You are also requested to inform the Company on your accepting Directorships of other companies.

In compliance with the requirements of the Act, you are required to make certain disclosures related to and/or which might affect your role as a Director. These include:

- Promptly advising details of any interests, or changes thereto, in the Company's securities;
- Provide a current list of your related parties and companies in which you hold positions as Director or other positions held by you.

Confidentiality

In your role as an Independent Director you will be in possession of confidential information about the Company and its affairs. You may kindly use that information in the proper performance of your duties only or as required by law.
